

7. APPEALS INFORMATION

It is anticipated that there may be a rise in the number of appeals for in-year admissions, as many parents are likely not to get any of their preference schools. Previously, parents may have applied to several schools gradually realising there were no vacancies at their preferred schools, and tempered their expectations accordingly.

Community Schools need to ensure their School Appeal Statements are submitted on time.

More information is available on the Ealing Council website:

<http://www.ealing.gov.uk/services/education/schools/admissions/appeals.html>