No learner left behind - no school left behind

Network, share experience and exchange views and ideas to inspire you, your school and your pupils:

The conference is being held over two days. The excellent facilities of the Runnymede Hotel have been chosen as the venue and headteachers are invited to attend for the two days, including accommodation and dinner.

The event will include...

Top keynote speakers:

- Dr Kulvart Atwal, headteacher of Highlands Primary and author of "The Thinking School"
- Sir William Atkinson, who "turned around" Phoenix High School, contributed to Channel 4's "The Unteachables" and was the inspiration for Lenny Henry's character in the 1999 BBC TV series "Hope and Glory"
- David Bartram OBE, specialist SEND consultant

Topical workshops:

- Gendered Intelligence, understanding gender diversity in creative ways
- Charlie Waller Memorial Trust, Depression - let's get talking
- Alan Coleman, Middlesex Cricket Coach

ELP update and feedback:

- Help shape the ELP board's plans for the future

The cost per delegate is £650 for a two night residential place and £450 for a one night stay. Day attendance will be charged at £300
