

University of West London Teacher Lates – 11 March 2020

10 Feb 2020

The University of West London are holding their next Teacher Late event on Wednesday 11 March at the London Transport Museum's Acton Depot (Acton Town Station) from 4.30pm-7.30pm with drinks and refreshments included.

Includes behind scenes tour of the Depot and workshop, an academic session from our Graphic Design expert plus career focussed talks from a variety of colleagues.

The focus will be on careers in STEM and the arts, but also gives great access to the Depot and the amazing learning resources available for primary and secondary schools.

Open to teachers, teaching staff and careers leads to attend this session.
