

Celebrating talent for Black History Month

18 Oct 2021

Are you, or your child, aged between 11 and 25 and an amazing singer, musician, actor, poet, photographer, comedian or artist?

There's still time for them to enter the Equality, Equity and Empowerment group's Black History Month talent competition.

How to enter

To enter the online competition, they will need to email a photo or video of their talent to EEEChildrensVoices@ealing.gov.uk by 31 October.

Children under the age of 16 will need to send in a consent form with their application - see download.

The competition aims to celebrate the talent of children and young people across Ealing, with an emphasis on pride and achievement throughout Black History month.

This will be a chance for children and young people to showcase different talents and have their work displayed as a collage video of a variety of entrants, and art works displayed in various venues around Ealing.
