

Proposal for Berrymede Infant and Junior to become Berrymede Primary School

05 Oct 2021

Ealing Council and the governing bodies of both Berrymede Infant School and Berrymede Junior School are proposing to join the schools together with one headteacher and one governing body from September 2022.

Berrymede Infant and Berrymede Junior would become Berrymede Primary – a single school for pupils from Nursery to Year 6, instead of separate infant and junior schools.

This would be achieved through extending the age range of one school and the technical closure of the other.
