What else is on

Film showing of LUCKY

Act One Cinema, Wednesday 9 October, 1pm to 3:30pm

For colleagues working in children's services: An incredible opportunity to experience firsthand a film made by some of our young women from Bollo Brook Youth Centre and their partners at JE Delve. LUCKY is a raw and sobering glimpse at the reality of life in Ealing for three young women and their friends, touching on issues relating to culture, class, sexual harassment, sexual abuse, homelessness, relationships and relationship breakdown in families, friendship, bias and issues facing young carers.
