

SAFE referrals

Supportive action for families in Ealing (SAFE) is an area-based, multi-disciplinary service bringing together professionals from social work, domestic violence, education, parenting and mental health backgrounds.

The service offers a range of preventative interventions to ensure better long-term outcomes for families.

SAFE works with families to address problems as they arise, before they become bigger and harder to deal with.

See related services link below for further information about family support provided by SAFE.

Making a referral

A referral for help and support can be made by using the ECIRS referral form

ECIRS will assess the needs of each child or family to ensure a holistic approach to getting the full range and level of support needed.

ECIRS will determine if SAFE is the best service to progress the help needed.
