

SEN bulletin January 2024

Message from Madhu

Following an extensive recruitment and selection campaign in autumn, I am delighted to announce that Aretha Banton will be taking up post as Assistant Director SEND and Inclusion on 15 April 2024.

Aretha is very excited to be joining Ealing and to be building on the tremendous achievements of teams working to improve the lives of children and young people with SEND and additional needs. In this role, Aretha will be leading statutory SEND services, inclusion teams and working with partners to deliver the aims of our SEND Strategy.

Aretha is currently Strategic Head of Education, Quality and Inclusion in Medway where she has led the council's transformation programme for SEND services. In her council based roles, she has led school effectiveness teams, SEND and EP services, Early Years, Commissioning and QA, Exclusions and AP and Fair Access. Aretha also took the lead in developing Medway's self-evaluation for SEND and forward planning to secure sufficiency of places.

Prior to her work in Medway, Aretha was a vice principal in two large academy trusts. She has worked as a senior leader across all phases of education from EYFS to P16.

Aretha joins Ealing with extensive experience of working with services to ensure a holistic approach to education and inclusion. She is passionate about ensuring that children and young people have access to the right services at the right time.

Celebrate our pupils, schools and settings!

Let's celebrate the useful, up to date and detailed App Bs schools have been providing at the point of statutory assessment. This makes a big difference to a pupil's final EHCP. 0-14 panel has seen some great examples from St Joseph's, Montpelier and West Acton primary schools recently.

Ealing SEND Information and Advice Support Service (IASS)

Early Start SEND and inclusion team

Almost every primary school in Ealing has at least one pupil in nursery or reception with complex needs – pre-verbal, early stages of toilet training, self-directed and or overwhelmed by the school environment. Please reach out to the Early Start SEND and Inclusion team for support at school, home and for SENIF; under 5's can still access health visitor support for toilet training.

Top Tip

Have you thought of using the United Nations Convention for the rights of the child (UNCRC) reflection tool to strengthen inclusion?

For example in one setting 2 EY children needed to wear eye patches for part of the day, so the staff bought extras and put them in the role play area for all children to access. This tip came from a session on Using the UNCRC to reflect on SEN practice.

Did you Know?

That an EP report is not required to submit a request for statutory assessment? Although an EP report will be part of any assessment, it is not required as part of a request, where there is other professional evidence available such as an ASD assessment, SaLT, OT or CAMHS reports.
