

Ealing Learning Partnership
School leader and governor conference
No learner left behind - no school left behind

The role of governance
Wednesday 26 June 2019, 9.00am-3.30pm
Doubletree by Hilton, Ealing Common W5

8.15 – 9.00am	Registration and refreshments An opportunity to visit a small number of exhibitors
9.00 - 9.20am	Welcome Therese McNulty, School Governance Lead
	Ealing Learning Partnership (ELP) – one year on Julie Lewis, Director Learning, Standards & School Partnerships
9.20 - 10.30am	Partnership, Place and Belonging Estelle Morris, Baroness Morris of Yardley The power of ethical leadership and collective endeavour in making a difference to the life chances of children and young people. Key questions for governors
10.30 – 11.00am	Refreshment break and networking
11. 00 - 11.40am	No learner left behind: What matters most in designing your curriculum? Helen Nistala, Wholehearted Childhood & formerly DfE/GLA and Lauren Nash, Lady Margaret Primary
11.40 - 12.20pm	No school left behind: Why marketing matters Justin Smith, Chameleon Training and Consultancy Are we communicating what we do well in the best possible way?
12.20 - 12.50pm	What do you want ELP to do for you? What will you do on behalf of ELP? Table activity
12.50 - 13.00pm	Closing remarks/next steps
1.00 - 1.45pm	Buffet lunch
1.45 – 1.50pm	*Welcome, introductions and format for the learning conversation, Setting strategic direction. Therese McNulty
1.50 – 2.00pm	Setting strategic direction - context and a personal view Angela Doherty, ELP Quality and Partnerships lead 11-19
2.00 – 3.00pm	Learning conversations in allocated triads
3.15 – 3.30pm	Action planning
3.15 – 3.30pm	Feedback and next steps Therese McNulty
3.30pm	Close

For more information and to book a place, please go to www.ealingcpd.org.uk or https://schools.ealingcpd.org.uk/courses/bookings/c_detail.asp?cid=15110

*Please note for the 1.45-3.30pm session, some prep in advance is required. For details please see Learning conversation outline document on CPD Online (link above)