

NEW GEN FESTIVAL 2024

NEW GEN FESTIVAL IS A NEW ONE-DAY FESTIVAL OF MUSIC, DANCE AND CREATIVITY BY AND FOR YOUTH IN WEST LONDON

New Gen takes place in Walpole Park (next to Ealing town centre) on Wednesday 24 July 2024 from 12pm to 9pm.

Tickets are affordable, only £2.50 for young people up to 25 and parents/carers, or £5 for over 25s, plus lots of free tickets to communities facing financial barriers.

THE PROGRAMME

- ★ live music and dance on the MAIN STAGE
- ★ community takeovers on the WEST STAGE from groups such as Include Me (SEND families), Rebels & Pilgrims (Southall cultural events), London College of Music, and spoken word set
- ★ CREATIVE CAREERS programme with film panel and music industry workshops
- ★ creative tasters, e.g. film shoot and djembe
- ★ MIND ZONE—mental wealth activities like yoga and art
- ★ youth fashion market and food stalls

New Gen is a platform for young artists, providing opportunities for at least ten emerging artists to appear alongside headliners on the main stage, and opportunities for artists in other artforms to take part through dance workshops and in community takeovers on the West Stage.

Full programme to be announced end of May 2024.

Follow us on Instagram (@newgen_fest) or sign up on MailChimp (<http://eepurl.com/ikvksP>) to hear about our programme as it's released.

WHO'S BEHIND NEW GEN?

New Gen Festival is run by a partnership of youth organisations working with young people in Ealing including Ealing Council, Bollo Brook Youth Centre, JE Delve, Descendants, WAPPY, University of West London, DIAXPORA, and Elevate Arts.